The St. Regis Doha Launches La Noche de Doha at Oyster Bay, As Well As Welcoming The World's Best DJ's at The Rooftop Every Month

La Noche de Doha features a lively Cuban showcase, featuring Latino rhythms and Caribbean inspired snacks

In collaboration with Café Mambo Ibiza, The Rooftop will be bringing one international DJ every month with Parisian-born producer, DJ and groove extraordinaire, Erik Hagelton, hitting the deck this month

Qatar, Doha: October 2, 2016 – The St. Regis Doha, the finest address in Qatar, is proud to have launched its eagerly awaited live Cuban music showcase with La Noche de Doha at Oyster Bay, as The St. Regis Doha continues to offer a wide range of musical genres to the people of Doha. Meanwhile, the Hotel has also confirmed that it will be bringing Parisian-born producer, DJ and groove extraordinaire, Erik Hagelton to The Rooftop on October 13 as part of its collaboration with Café Mambo Ibiza.

As The St. Regis Doha continues to diversify Doha's music scene by offering high-quality music, lively performances and delicious food from all four corners of the globe, La Noche de Doha is the latest in its offering. The Cuban band has mastered crowd favourite songs and will cater to a multitude of diverse music genres spanning across Rhumba, Afro-Cuban jazz, Salsa, Soukous as well as Spanish fusion genres.

Music lovers and guests will be able to enjoy a truly unique and unforgettable music experience with La Noche de Doha every Wednesday to Saturday, from sunset until late, featuring a new Cuban band playing energetic Latino rhythms, while savouring Caribbean inspired snacks and hand-crafted beverages.

The Cuban band currently comprises of world class musicians including vocalists Gerardo Contino and Jenny Sotolongo, keyboard player Axel Tosca, bassist Israel Cedano, who will be joined by Yusnier Bustamante on the Congo drums. Featuring a combination of lounge music, a beach side bar, authentic Cuban treats and refreshing drinks by the pool, La Noche de Doha is the place to be during the week as the sun goes down and the temperature at Oyster Bay rises.

Following the successful debut of La Noche de Doha, Mr. Tareq Derbas, Area General Manager of Lebanon, Syria, Pakistan, Iran and Iraq for Starwood Hotels & Resorts Middle East and General Manager of The St. Regis Doha, said: "We are immensely proud of the fantastic talent that we have performing at La Noche de Doha, coupled with signature Cuban food and a relaxing atmosphere at Oyster Bay. The St. Regis Doha prides itself on always being at the forefront of fresh and exciting new concepts which includes world class musicians, live performances and stand out food and service, and we are confident that we have achieved this yet again with La Noche de Doha.”

Meanwhile, every Tuesday evening the band will perform live from 9 PM until midnight at The Club at The St. Regis during ladies night and at Oyster Bay, St Regis private beach every Wednesday evening from 8 PM until 12 midnight, every Thursday and Friday from 9:30 PM until 1:15 AM, and every Saturday from 8 PM until 1:15 AM.

And in collaboration with Café Mambo Ibiza, The Rooftop will continue bringing one international DJ every month that will be spinning the latest house and dance tracks, with accomplished Parisian-born producer, DJ and groove extraordinaire, Erik Hagleton, taking over the decks at The Rooftop on October 13, performing a mix of tech house, deep house, and techno. Inspired by house music from the 90’s combined with a love of percussions and a touch of minimal, Erik’s style has become deeper and grittier over the last decade. As an accomplished producer, Erik dedicates his time to creating unique rhythms and striking groove on every track that he works on, and since 2012 has been signed to Bob Sinclair’s Yellow Productions label where he has produced under the Africanism project.

Last month, The Rooftop brought world-renowned DJ John Jacobsen who performed to a sell-out crowd creating a fantastic and lively atmosphere. While The Rooftop will be offering house music every Thursday night, before mixing it up with retro night every Friday night.

Along with La Noche de Doha and a revamped The Rooftop, The St. Regis Doha recently launched The Club which will offer high-quality music across Soul, Blues and Bossa Nova and delicious soul food for music lovers in Qatar. Along with The Raw Bar opening on October 16, an intimate dining setting for only 12, which features an exquisite menu of sushi, sashimi and seafood including oysters and caviar, as The St. Regis Doha places a greater emphasis on fresh, raw food.

In addition, Astor Grill, the open-kitchen restaurant which prides itself on offering prime cuts of meat and fish that is packed full of flavor with hearty rustic sides that tantalise taste buds, has also revamped its menu. Proving to be popular is Astor Grill’s dry aged meat with a selection of the finest meats that are only available at The St. Regis Doha. The cuts have been hand selected by Astor Grill’s butchers and aged to tender perfection for 21 days in a humidity-controlled dry aging cabinet.
